1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art fails to teach a combination of at least one serial link coupled between the transmitter and the receiver, wherein each of the transmitter and the receiver is operable in any selected one of a transmission mode and a mute mode, wherein the transmitter transmits packets of data to the receiver over the link in the transmission mode, transmission of the data over the link is interrupted during the mute mode, and the transmitter and the receiver are configured to undergo transitions between mute mode operation and transmission mode operation in response to warnings, such that the transitions occur only at packet boundaries of the data.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Funke et al. (5,845,201) is cited to show systems which are considered pertinent to the claimed invention.
